

Privacy Policy

QA³ Financial Corp. in accordance with the Gramm-Leach Bliley Act signed into law on November 12, 1999, wishes to disclose the following.

QA³ collects nonpublic, personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information given to us from you on account applications or other account opening forms
- Information about your transactions with QA³, our affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties

We do not disclose any nonpublic, personal information about our current or former customers to affiliates or nonaffiliated third parties except as permitted by law.

QA³ restricts access to nonpublic, personal information to employees, affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties who need such information to provide products and services to you our customers. We have in place physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect your nonpublic, personal information.

If you were to close your account with QA³ or become an inactive customer, we will adhere to the privacy policies described above.
